FOOD SHORTAGE MAY SOON BRING EUROPEAN WAR TO END

London, Aug. 21.—General food shortage in Europe may bring about an early termination of the war. Of the countries involved England is the best supplied with edibles. Millions of men in the field will soon exhaust the supplies.

In Austria only women are left to harvest the crops. Holland, although neutral, has only sixteen days supply and the government warns the people to use flour sparingly. In many quarters horse flesh will soon be a luxury.

18TH. ANNUAL SESSION GOOD ROADS ASSO.

Birmingham, Aug. 21.—Since Good Roads Days, August 14-15, has proved so successful and so much interest has been aroused in good roads, the executive officers of the Alabama Good Roads Association has commenced actively to arouse an interest in the 18th Annual Session of the Association, which will meet in Montgomery on October 21-23.

Letters of invitations are being prepared by the Association, inviting the probate judges, county commissioners, mayors, presidents of Commercial Clubs and the automobile organizations to appoint delegates to attend this convention, will be sent out this week. Accompanying these letters will be invitations sent out by Governor O'Neal on behalf of the State, Hon. R. A. Jones, on behalf of the county of Montgomery, Mayor W. A. Gunter, on behalf of the city of Montgomery and President Duncan May on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce. It is expected with these cordial invitations from so many sources that a very large crowd will assemble in Montgomery on this occasion.

HIS BEARD IS SINGED BY BOLT OF LIGHTNING

Waycross, Ga., Aug. 21.—When lightning struck the home of J. S. Dukes, near Millwood, today, Dukes and Walter Mercer both had close calls from instant death. The lightning ran along side of the house at the front where Dukes was resting, tearing off planks near his head, running through his hat singeing his hair and beard and knocking him unconscious. Mercer was also knocked unconscious. A small child between them escaped injury. Two years ago Dukes was hit by a bolt when his horse was torn off his feet after the top of the chimney was demolished.

JAPAN PREPARES TO ENTER THE CONFLICT

Tokio, Aug. 21.—Strict censorship was ordered by the government today. All dispatches are revised by military authorities and correspondents and newspapers are warned not to send out or print anything regarding the movements of troops or warships.

Preparations for war are proceeding rapidly and attaches of the German embassy have packed their personal belongings and are ready to leave.

There are no anti-German outbreaks. The people are calm and papers today prominently displayed the statement that Japan's ultimatum to Germany which expires at noon Sunday was sent at the request of Great Britain. That is flatly denied. Reports from London say Japan acted on her own initiative. Papers carry an emphatic denial by Premier Okuma and Foreign Minister Kato that Japan is seeking to take the Philippines and Samoa.

Portuguese Troops Going to England.

Paris, Aug. 21.—Portuguese here say forty thousand Portuguese troops are going to England.

Austria Makes Final Call to Arms.

London, Aug. 21.—The Austrian government has issued a final call to arms for all able bodied men from twenty to forty-two years old. This is expected to add four hundred and fifty thousand more men to the army.

French May Have to Abandon Mulhausen.

Paris, Aug. 21.—German troops have driven a wedge between the French forces in Belgium and those in Alsace. This may force the French to abandon Mulhausen. The war office admits forces operating in Lorraine were forced to fall back to the Seltz river.

Nish, Aug. 21.—A semi-official statement today says the Servians are pursuing the right wing of the Austrian army near the Drina river, and a battery of six guns were captured by the Servians. Austrians are trying to take Belgrade and Obrenovatz.

Russians Capture Lych.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 21.—It is officially announced that the Russians have captured Lych, in east Prussia. This gives Russia base operations twelve miles inside the enemy's territory.

MAYOR BAKER MAKES GIFT TO DOTHAN ELKS

Crawford House, St. Andrews and Crawford streets, to be Remodeled for Elks Home.—Will Build New House Later.

Mayor Joe Baker last night donated a lot estimated in value at $8,000 to the Dothan Lodge Benevolent Order of Elks, and plans will soon be put under way looking towards the erection of a fine home. The house and lot at St. Andrews and Crawford streets, formerly owned by Probate Judge A. C. Crawford, is the munificent gift of Mayor Baker to the Elks. The house will be remodeled and occupied by the Elks this Fall, but the plans include the erection later on of an attractive home.

It is prophesied by those in position to know that the Elks home which is planned to build will cost at least $10,000 and probably more. Prominent Elks believe that it will be no great difficulty to raise the necessary amount of money.

Of all the various lodges and organizations, and there are many, it is doubtful if any are more popular with the general public than the Elks, this organization being noted for its charity and gifts to the poor.

KING ALBERT REACHES ANTWERP

Antwerp, Aug. 21.—King Albert arrived here this morning and the city's defenses are being strengthened, part of the surrounding territory being fortified.

The Queen and children are ready to flee to England or Holland. Immense supplies of cattle and sheep are being gathered in preparation of the siege. The first German troops to enter Brussels were three regiments of Uhlans.

WILL PROSECUTE PROMOTERS OF FOOD PRICES

Washington, Aug. 21.—Attorney General McInnes expects to draw indictments against conspirators hoarding food prices in a few days. President Wilson is urging prosecution to the limit.

FARMERS UNION ADJOURNED

Birmingham, Aug. 21.—After pressing resolutions endorsing the President's offer of mediation in war and deploring the effect hostilities are having on agriculturists, the Farmers Union adjourned at noon.

AFTER STREET TAX DODGERS

The clerical staff in the office of City Clerk R. W. Lisenby have been busy recently checking the names of those who have paid street taxes with the list of citizens procured when the census was taken a few months ago.

By making comparisons, it is believed that the names of some will be found who have not paid street taxes. The plan of comparison between the two lists now being worked, will enable the officials to "get the number" of street tax dodgers. Many have complained because of the high street tax here, and it is said that if the price was reduced from $5 to $3.00 yearly that more money from this source would be collected.

POPE'S SISTER IS NOT DEAD AS REPORTED

Rome, Aug. 21.—The conclave to elect a new pope, which according to traditions should open ten days after the Pontiff's death, may be delayed on account of the war. The new Pontiff is expected to try to bring peace in Europe.

The report published about the death of the Pope's sister, Anna, is untrue. She is still alive but in a dangerous condition from collapse.

The body of the late Pontiff was taken to St. Peter's today where it will lie in State several days.

FOREIGN AMBASSADORS HURRYING BACK TO WASHINGTON

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN

Were the world a little less advanced, there probably would have been the wildest consternation in Russia today and throughout that part of Europe embroiled in war, because at noon there was an eclipse of the sun that was total over a part of Russia and was partial over all that part of the continent where men were fighting.

Despite the wide-spread knowledge of astronomy of the present day, it may well be said that the peasants of central Europe and Russia, drafted as they have been from their homes and held to fight in a war, the purpose of which they cannot comprehend the obscuring of the great luminary just around mid-day, may incite a feeling of terror that might upset the plans of the generals.

Time was when such phenomenon would undoubtedly have been construed as an omen, the demonstration of God's displeasure with the warring nations.

The eclipse today is the most important one of the year. It cast total darkness over a strip of Russia, running from Riga on the Baltic to the Crimea, stretching through the polar regions of North America through Scandinavia, Asia Minor, Persia and India.

All of Europe, a portion of Africa and Asia and a part of North America that reaches down nearly to New York, falls within the partial eclipse, the shadow of the penumbra. Where the eclipse is but partial, the disc of the moon creeps across the face of the sun little by little but will never wholly obscure the orb.

But, where the eclipse is total, the moon entirely covers the sun and the inhabitants in that region will see the most wonderful phenomenon known to astronomers—the corona of the sun. Great waves of incandescent gas, hundreds of thousands of miles long, reaching out from the sun into the ether, may be perceived. The countryside takes on a silvery blue color and tints of blue, purple and red are at twilight, the temperature falls perceptibly.

In the northern part of the United States where the partial eclipse was visible, it occurred between five and six o'clock this morning.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Prompted by a desire to keep in close touch with the State Department and the situation abroad, foreign ambassadors who were on summer vacations are hurrying back here.

German and French representatives are hastening from Europe. Japanese and Chinese are here. The entire English delegation with the exception of Ambassador Spring-rice, is on duty, and the Italian and Russian representatives are in close touch.

PARADE FOR PEACE FAVORED BY WILSON

New York, Aug. 21.—President Wilson today gave his approval to plans for the women's peace parade to be held in New York city August 29, the committee having the arrangement in charge announced.

Plans for the demonstration already has been carried far when on August 18, the president issued his proclamation regarding the observance of neutrality by Americans. A telephone message from Secretary Tumulty said:

"The president says the parade is all right. He approves of the plan to carry no flags and have no speaking."

Liberty and birds, believing night has come, hush their singing and seek their nests.

The eclipse is a recurring one. It happens at the ends of every eighteen years and eleven days. It is caused by the moon coming between the sun and the earth at such an angle that the sun is wholly obscured from a part of the earth and partially shut off from much greater area. The eclipse that occurred today was observed July 28, 1878, and Aug. 9, 1896.

In Russia the total eclipse lasts a few minutes more than two hours, with a partial eclipse of a like period. In France, Belgium and Germany, the partial eclipse lasts about an hour and a half, from eleven o'clock in the morning until half an hour past noon.

In the northern part of the United States where the partial eclipse was visible, it occurred between five and six o'clock this morning.

"WHOSE DOG IS THIS?" ASK JUSTICE BUTLER HE KNOWS

"Whose dog is this?"

Is he black, brown, a bird dog, possum dog, or poodle? What kind of a dog is he, and what is his proud ancestry that so much fuss is being raised about his possession?

At any rate, Deputy Sheriff John Hiltner will solemnly swear, cross his hands and kiss his Bible that it is a real dog, said canine now being in the custody of the Sheriff. It was in some manner the canine got to Hiltner who went out and served a gnawing bones around the domicile writ of detinue in? Justice T. W. Butler, who issued the writ and Hiltner who served it, both failed to tell the dog's purpose of the pronouncement. The deputy just took the dog, who will now have to bear the lion of the ownership of his Royal Highness of dishonor. That dog's Dogship.

reputation is gone. He will never hold his head high again, if he ever did.

"Whose dogs is this?" Well, it is up to Justice Butler to determine. Until he paws on the question, the ownership of said canine is very much in doubt.

The dog originally belonged to E. M. Morris, colored, it is said, but in some manner the canine got to Hiltner who went out and served a gnawing bones around the domicile writ of detinue in? Justice T. W. Butler, who issued the writ and Hiltner who served it, both failed to tell the dog's purpose of the pronouncement. The deputy just took the dog, who will now have to bear the lion of the ownership of his Royal Highness of dishonor. That dog's Dogship.

THE CITY AND THE RURAL

The Dothan Morning News claims that Dothan is being slandered and that her bad name spreading abroad is quite overbalancing the good name of the place.

That is Dothan's misfortune and nobody's fault, except her own. She has compromised with the evil influences in her community so long, they have come to the conclusion that they own the place and that they can do as they please and get away with it in Dothan.

The burning of the Methodist parsonage, the injuring of the parson's wife in the parsonage home, who has been sick for weeks as a result, the jeopardizing of the lives of helpless women in the house, and the ugly and foolish instigation that the church authorities burned the parsonage for insurance, made by the mayor, will all go down on the historic page of Dothan as a dark and menacing day to her future development. Thoughtful men of families will hesitate to seek such a place to rear their children. The cry that Dothan has been slandered will not efface the cold facts. Clean out the town of tigers and fire bugs and peanut politicians, and the city cannot be slandered. It will blossom like a rose, and flourish like a bay tree planted by the rivers of water.—Selma Journal.

We already have concrete examples of the hurt to the town done by the burning of the parsonage.

A foreign loan company represented here had been making loans on Dothan property, but as soon as the news of the parsonage fire and its cause got on the wires the company's local agent was notified to take no more applications for loans on Dothan property.

Another example: Two excellent citizens had arranged to move here, but shortly after the fire it was learned that they had decided not to come. These gentlemen stated the reason they did not come was because of their failure to get a piece of property they were on a trade for, but it is generally believed the fire influenced them against coming as they could have secured other property just as desirable.

MORE UNDESIRABLE ADVERTISING

"Conditions down at Dothan appear to be growing worse at a reasonably rapid rate. True, Dothan is not as bad as Birmingham yet, but then it is a smaller town than Birmingham. Judging from the news reports that come out of Dothan that town is about as bad, according to the 'Magic City'."

—Ocala News

What are the feelings of officials charged with enforcing our laws when they see Dothan advertised everywhere as the worst town in the country?

CARRYING FAVOR WITH GOD

Chicago Tribune: "And now I commend you to God," said the kidnaper from his balcony to the people in the street. "Go to church and kneel before God and pray for His help for our gallant army."

Pray that a farmer dragged from a Saxon field shall be speedier with a bayonet thrust than a wine maker taken from his vine in the Aube; that a Dothan lawyer shall be steadier with the rifle than a Moscow merchant; that a machine gun man shot by Heidelberg students shall not jam and that one worked by Park carpenters shall.

Pray that a Bavarian hop grower, armed in a quarrel in which he has no heart, shall outmatch a wheat grower from Potava; that Cosmaqui from the Dan shall be fared into the barbed wire entanglements and caught by masked guns; that an innkeeper of Salzburg shall blow the head off a baker from the Loire.

"Go to church and pray for help"—that the hell shall be hotter in innocent Ardennes than it is in equally innocent Reims; that it shall be hotter in innocent Kovno than in equally innocent Posen.

And the Platonic ear commands his subjects to God that they may have strength of arm in a quarrel they do not understand, that they may inflict more suffering than they are required to endure and the name of Hohenzollern, that it may be greater than the name of Hapsburg, that its territories shall be wider and the territories of Hohenzollern and the territories of Hapsburg less.

The platonic Emperor of Austria commands his subjects to God, to seek divine assistance to crush the pennants of Serbia, dragged from the wheat field when it was ready for the scythe, and given to the scythe themselves.—Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.

THE FARMERS' UNION

The annual meeting of the Alabama Farmer's Educational and Co-operative union which was called to order at the Jefferson theatre yesterday morning was not as largely attended as usual, although many representative men were present. The comparatively small attendance was due to some hitch in the railroad fare which should have gone into effect Tuesday, but which, as a matter of fact, was not effective until yesterday. As a consequence many active members of the union postponed their trip to Birmingham until yesterday evening.

Today's meeting will, it is believed, be attended by 600 or 700 members. The Farmers Educational and Co-operative union, as its name implies, is a very important organization. It is made up of men who create wealth out of the ground, and the progressiveness of those engaged in husbandry in Alabama is now proverbial. Many of the best farmers in the United States are found in this state. Within the past year or eight years they have done wonders in intensifying production. It is quite a common thing now for the Alabama farmer to produce a bale of cotton to the acre instead of a bale to three acres as in former years.

The members of the union are naturally concerned about the financing of this year's crop. But for the European war, cotton this fall would be selling for 13 1/2 to 14 cents. Those who were inclined to take a gloomy view a week or ten days ago thought the cotton farmers would have to make heavy sacrifices, but government officials, prominent bankers and men of affairs of recognized ability are co-operating in the business of financing the south's great staple, and a satisfactory plan will be worked out. Until the financing plans are perfected, however, farmers should hold their cotton. There is no reason whatever for anyone becoming frightened or rattled. The farmers will not have to hold their cotton long, and when they do sell it they will get a price that will pay them well.

Birmingham greets the Farmers' union most cordially. While the members will be busy with discussion and routine matters, they cannot take a little time for sight-seeing and for accepting some of this city's hospitality.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

LUKE M'LUKE SAYS

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Another great trouble with the world is that everybody thinks or anybody else's business is more important than his own.

If people would send in a lot advertisement every time they lose their temper, each newspaper would have to issue a 2000-page paper every day.

When the boss wants to pay you a compliment the mail is speedy enough. But when he wants to kick about your work he has to use the telegraph.

The bartender is the only man who can mix his drinks and hold his job.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to be presented with a gold-headed cane.

Every man knows that what is laziness in the other fellow is fatigue from overwork in his case.

When mother is sick father knows it isn't anything serious. But when father gets a stomach ache he wants an army of surgeons and nurses and insists that the world be given hourly bulletins as to his condition.

The reason why a man brings his wife a two-bit box of candy and pays $2 for the box of candy he brings the stenographer is because his wife would fuss with him if he purchased anything expensive for her.

When a man picks up an umbrella by mistake he never picks up a worse one than his own.

This would be a whole lot better country if the reformers would take out enough time to mind their own business.

A man may have his doubts about his wife, but he will always bet that his watch is right.

And there are only about 30 days between the Love-Rick stage and the Sick-of-Love stage.

Men are not as smart as they imagine they are. It takes a woman to tell a real blonde from a chemical blonde.

A man can't help having a red nose. But red whiskers are his own fault.

Most men are honest because they wouldn't steal less than $100.000, and they are never where that amount is lying around loose.

It is funny how empty a man can be when he is full.

Another cheerful liar is the man who tells his wife that he never looks at another woman.

Editor Hall of The Dothan Eagle says that "If you've never seen the stylish dances take in the one 'for men only' at the fair grounds this fall, it's real elevatin'." You don't mean to say that you have seen them?—Montgomery Journal.

No, only the fellows who were elevated.

HUERTA AND FAMIL

MARONED IN LONDON

London, Aug. 21.—Marooned in London because of the war and the consequent interruption to travel Victoriano Huerta, former president of Mexico, and his family, made a brief sight-seeing tour about the city today.

Loading his party into two automobiles, General Huerta instructed the drivers to go to Trafalgar square and Buckingham palace. Suggestions that he might also care to see Westminster abbey and St. Paul's cathedral were dismissed by General Huerta with an impatient "only Trafalgar square and Buckingham palace."

General Huerta and family slipped into London unannounced and

USE "GETS-IT" CORNS

SHRIVEL, VANISH! It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns.

"2 drops put on in 2 seconds, corn shrivels, comes clean off!" That's the marvelous story of "GETS-IT," the new-plant corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their fussy plasters, sticky tape, toe-eating salves, and "wrapping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to cause inflammation or rawness, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply it in 2 seconds. No more knives, razors, scissors or files with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

MRS. IDA TILLMAN IS GOING TO TELL ABOUT IT

Montgomery Journal.

Mrs. Ida O. Tillman, one time militant postmistress at Geneva, Ala., who was removed from her post only after federal deputy marshals were en route to that city has now gone upon the lecture stage to tell of "The Bells of the Spills System," "Told by a Victim." Folders announcing the plan of Mrs. Tillman have been received by friends in this city.

Mrs. Tillman was removed by President Wilson after a term of several years. She refused to surrender her post to the man appointed and went so far as to barricade herself within the walls of the post-office building and defy anyone, official or otherwise, to get her out. She was finally moved when it was announced that the United States marshal at Montgomery had been ordered to the scene to perfect an ejectment.

The following account will be read with interest here where Mrs. Crosland was well known.

Marriage of Mr. Crosland and Miss Holley—

Abbeville, Ala., Aug. 19—A marriage of interest throughout Alabama, owing to the prominence of both young people was that of Mr. Clayton Edward Crosland and Miss Ida Holley which was impressively solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with palm fronds and cut flowers. A lovely musical program was rendered before the ceremony, Miss Lucile Holley, a cousin of the bride, presiding at the organ. Miss Irene kins of Besenmer sang sweetly. The music by D. Hurdle and several other numbers.

To the strains of the Tobouglin wedding march the bridal party entered the church led by the usher, Mr. J. B. Long and Mr. Austin Hawley, of Abbeville, Mr. Dave Crosland and Mr. W. Raymond Cooper of Montgomery.

Two sisters of the bride, Mr. Robert Kennedy Stokes of Abbeville and Mrs. Alexander Terry of Fort Moultrie, S. C. were matrons of honor. They wore costumes of white lace over mesaline, with pink sashes and carried bouquets of pink asters.

The bride entered with her cousin and maid of honor, Miss Vera Holley of Fort Gaines, Ga. Miss Holley wore a gown of white crepe chiffon and lace and her flowers were pink asters.

The bride was a picture of beauty in her wedding gown of white embroidered crepe chiffon trimmed in princess lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. Cary Pratt McCord of Detroit, Mich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Thompson of Birmingham, brother-in-law of the groom and the Episcopal service was used.

Immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Crosland motored to Dothan where they took a train to the mountains of North Carolina.

The bride's going away gown was of blue silk poplin and she wore a chic blue silk hat trimmed with white wings.

Mr. and Mrs. Crosland will be at home after September 1 at Fork Union, Va. where Mr. Crosland is at the head of the Fork Union Military Academy.

The bride is a charming girl and possesses both rare intellect and beauty. She is also a talented musician and was educated at Judson College at Marion.

Mr. Crosland is a Rhodes scholarship man having graduated with high honors at Oxford, England. He is well known throughout the South and has a host of warm friends who extend to him sincere congratulations.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Crosland of Birmingham, parents of the groom, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson of Birmingham, Misses Crosland of Montgomery, aunts of the groom, Mr. Dave Crosland and Mr. W. R. Cooper of Montgomery, Dr. G. R. Mayfield, of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Edward Passmore of Dothan, and Dr. Cary Pratt McCord of Detroit.

A large number of handsome gifts were received by the young couple. Among the gifts to the bride was a unique necklace of butterfly from India, the gift of Dr. McCord.

Mrs. F. M. Holley entertained the wedding party delightfully Tuesday evening, after the rehearsal.

Cards announcing the arrival of Robert Andrew Le Maisena on August 8th have been received by friends here.

Miss Lucile Bell left this morning for Quitman, Ga., for a short visit.
